

TODAY IN HEMPSTEAD & OYSTER BAY

Baldwin

Jazzabilly concert

Gibraltar Jazz performs.

WHEN | WHERE

2-3:30 p.m., Baldwin Library, 2385 Grand Ave.

INFO 516-223-6228,
baldwinpl.org

ADMISSION Free

Hempstead

The Long Island Pen Show

Featuring collectors and dealers of vintage and modern writing instruments exhibiting pens of all kinds, desk sets, inkwells, paper and writing supplies, demonstrations, repairs and appraisals.

WHEN | WHERE

10 a.m.-4 p.m., Hofstra University Student Center, Hempstead Turnpike.

INFO 631-235-4690,
lipenshow.com

ADMISSION $10 daily
admission

Franklin Square

Old-fashioned

Irish sing-along

Celebrate an early St. Patrick's Day by singing along to songs
such as "Danny Boy";
first come, first served.

WHEN | WHERE 2 p.m.,
Franklin Square Public Library, 19 Lincoln Rd.

INFO 516-488-3444,
franklinsquarepl.org

ADMISSION Free

Levittown

Model train show

The Nassau Lionel Operating Engineers Train Club's annual spring open house; view Long Island's largest operating O-Gauge train layout.

WHEN | WHERE 1-4 p.m.,
Cue Nine,

2953 Hempstead Tpke.

INFO 516-735-6370, nlloe.org

ADMISSION Free

COMMUNITY CALENDAR
ON BACK PAGE

KENNY SCHARF STUDIO

10

TOP THINGS TO DO THIS WEEK

1 Kenny Scharf installation

WHEN | WHERE
11 a.m.-4:45 p.m. Saturday, through July 10,
1 Museum Dr.,
Roslyn Harbor
INFO 516-484-9337,
nassaumuseum.org
ADMISSION $10 ($4 ages 4-12)

One of the Nassau County Museum of Art's latest installations features graffiti artist Kenny Scharf and his colorful large-scale paintings.

Pop icons, media advertising and consumer culture are his inspirations
— then there are TV cartoon characters such as the Flintstones and the Jetsons.

A second exhibition spotlights some of Scharf's contemporaries from the 1980s graffiti, hip-hop and street culture movement.

TURN THE PAGE FOR THE NEXT 9

newsday.com GUIDE OF THE WEEK

Emerald style

Wondering what to wear on St. Patrick's Day? There's a pot of gold at the end of the fashion rainbow, but you'll need only one color with these styles that make everyone feel a bit Irish.
St. Patrick's Day clothes, accessories and more: newsday.com/shopping

