

STREET ART
NYC

The Legendary Kenny Scharf Graces Massive Central Bronx Wall With His Buoyant, Magical Characters

May 11, 2016

For the past week, Kenny Scharf has been at work on a massive mural along Third Avenue in the Bathgate section of the Bronx. Replete with the artist's colorful, fanciful characters, the artwork brings vibrancy and intrigue to this central Bronx neighborhood. Here are a few more images we captured yesterday:

A small segment of huge, block-long mural

Another segment

Visible from the Cross Bronx Expressway, this mural was produced in collaboration with Krinos Foods and coordinated by KM Fine Arts.

An exhibit of Kenny Scharf's works remains on view at the Nassau County Museum of Art, where he will be painting live on Sunday, June 19, 12-4 p.m.

Photo credits: 1 Lois Stavsky; 2-5 City-as-School intern Sol Raxlen

Yet another fragment

And eleven-year old Jadeden — who has been mesmerized daily by Kenny's work — sharing one of his artworks

