

THE KENNY SCHARF INTERVIEW

Interview by Dan Golden

"Lately, I feel the need to utilize the dire headlines we are all confronting on a daily basis as we enter the most dangerous and stressful moment in our ecological human history. Come on everybody we need to get together and do something!"

— Kenny Scharf

HANGIN' WITH KENNY

I originally connected with Kenny Scharf last year, but it has taken me a while to prepare this interview. Why? I think because Kenny is one of my art heroes, and I struggled with finding how to best represent the experience of meeting and hanging out with someone as unique and dynamic as he is.

That said, in this crazy moment in the world, where we can all use a bit of fun and sunshine in our lives, it felt like the right time to finally share this interview with the amazingly prolific (and cool, and vibrant, and talented, and fun, and larger-than-life) Kenny Scharf.
